STAR BUYS

What the famous and fabulous are giving each other this year

Rita says:
 'The ultimate goal with presents is to surprise the receiver with something they wouldn't think of buying for themselves. I'll be honest, though, the filigrana glasses are because I love them and secretly hope I'll get my hands on them one day. The basket bag is for my mother's Christmas trip to the Bahamas, and the skates are because she's a lady who likes to get a lot done in a day.'
